THE ANDERSON
TRACT
—IS—
NOW READY FOR SALE.

Is Surveyed and Graded.

Without exaggeration this is as fine a body of upland as there is in this county.

Upon close examination, and testimony of the party who has worked the place for ten years past, we find the hardpan is from 4 feet to 6 feet from the surface, excepting 200 acres in the center, where none is found.

The land has slope sufficient to drain it well. On each side of the creek (which is dry in summer), vegetables and alfalfa grow without irrigation.

The tracts are surveyed in 10 and 20-acre lots.

Prices range from $40 to $75 per acre, owing to selection.

TERMS: One-quarter cash; deferred payments at 6 per cent. per annum, purchaser paying taxes on land.

The tract is located eight miles from Sacramento, and three miles from Brighton—the latter being a Railroad and Postoffice Station.

School, Store and Postoffice on corner of land. Postoffice has daily mail each way.

The terms and convenience of this piece of land puts it within the reach of all who wish to purchase. Bona-fide purchasers taken to view land.

There is a mine of wealth in every piece of land, if properly cultivated and managed.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

Opening of the California Citrus Fair in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 23d.—A summer-like, starry night, and the columns of descriptions in the newspapers, had the effect of crowding Battery D armory this evening to witness the opening of the Southern California Citrus Fair. The fact of an admission fee being charged to defray the expenses of exhibition, and the proverbial unsatisfactoriness of a first night, had no apparent effect upon the attendance. The bulk of the crowd was make up of family groups, mainly prosperous-looking citizens, accompanied by members of their household. Another prominent element was composed of persons who evidently had either visited California or been residents there. There were probably 2,000 people in the hall when Mayor Harrison mounted the stage, and waving silence to the thirty musicians alongside of him, began his address of welcome. He cordially indorsed the object of the exhibition, which, as he stated, was to afford the people of Chicago an opportunity of seeing what the counties of southern California are capable of producing, and to lay the foundation for trade between Chicago and that section of the Golden State. The Mayor spoke at considerable length on the mutual advantages to be derived from such trade, and closed by wishing the entire success which he declared the enterprise deserved. Commissioner Holt responded briefly, thanking the Mayor for the address, and the people of the city for the hearty reception that he had received at their hands. The audience then proceed to enjoy themselves among the long rows of oranges and lemon and palm trees. A stream of people passed in and out of the entrance, but a majority of the spectators spent the entire evening gazing at the pyramids and obelisks, and every conceivable shaped heap of the fruits, ores, wines and curiosities that go to make up the exhibition. The only drawback is the detention by strikers at Kansas City of a large number of fruit-bearing trees. It is expected, however, that arrangements will be made by which they will be forwarded to Chicago within a day or two, and make the exhibit complete.

The Great Railroad Strike.

ST. LOUIS, March 23d.—The Knights say they will accept no terms from the company unless offered to them as members of the Knights of Labor. A member of the Executive Committee said: "The worst is yet to come. I dread it, but there is no help for it. If we were to submit now and return to work without being recognized as Knights, it would be a defeat not only for us, but also for labor unions, trades assemblies, and for every labor organization in the country. We will wait three or four days, in hopes that some way towards a settlement may be opened; and then, if the situation remains unchanged, every freight train on every road running out of St. Louis and Chicago will be stopped."

ANOTHER STRIKE IMMINENT.

CHARLESTON (Va.), March 23d.—The Knights of Labor have been very active on the Chesapeake and Ohio road lately, and it is said that if the men are not granted their request—that the ten per cent. reduction made several months ago be restored—they will strike on May 1st.

General Suspension of Work.

WILMINGTON, March 23d.—A conference was to have been held to-day between the Knights of Labor and the morocco manufacturers of this city, for the purpose of adjusting wages, etc., for the coming season. The Knights' committee repaired to the place of meeting, but no manufacturers put in an appearance, and a general suspension of work in all the shops was ordered and promptly obeyed. The strike involves from 1,500 to 2,000 persons. A portion of those employed by Charles Mullin are authorized to return to work and finish up perishable stock.

Jay Gould Back Home.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—Jay Gould arrived unexpectedly this afternoon, and went to his home quietly; but the Wall-street reporters were on the watch for his coming, and he had not been in the city an hour before it was known throughout the city.

Pacific Mail Advertised Rates.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—Pacific Mail will advertise to-day to carry freight and passengers at the following rate: Freight, 30 cents per 100 pounds; saloon passengers, $40; steerage, $20.

Alderman Jaehne's History.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—A noted New York detective said yesterday: "Every one on the police force knew Alderman Jaehne as a fence. He secured immunity from arrest partly because of his political power and partly because he was useful to the police in betraying customers. He never did any honest business. He began by selling paste diamonds, such as were used by sneak thieves. Jaehne also had a great deal of business with Mother Mandlebaum, who was long let alone by the police. Recently Mother Mandlebaum has been urging Jaehne to fix things with the police so that she could return to this city. She is tired of Canada."

A Broken-Hearted Mother.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—The marriage of Hercules Kitson has been followed by the death of his mother. Hercules married a dissipated woman while, he asserts, under the influence of liquor. His mother first learned of the marriage when her son's wife came into her room at the Windsor Hotel intoxicated. The shock nearly prostrated Mrs. Kitson. Hercules' wife, in her answer in the suit for divorce, admitted flatly that she had been unfaithful to her husband since marriage, but alleged that it was with his connivance and consent, and that he had condoned her offense by living with her since then. This statement gave Mrs. Kitson a terrible shock, and the next day she was completely prostrated, and when the doctor called on her she was nearly blind. Last Wednesday she was unconscious, and on Friday she died. Commodore Kitson, who is over 70 years old and himself sick at home in St. Paul, was unable to come on to New York. The body was taken to St. Paul yesterday.

Wrestling Match.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—Articles of agreement were signed yesterday for a wrestling match between Matsda Sorakichi, the Japanese wrestler, and Ernest Roeber, champion of Germany, to take place on Wednesday, March 31st. They are to wrestle best two in three falls, Graeco-Roman style, for $250 a side.

The Latest Ku-Klux Outrage.

PARKERSBURG (W. Va.), March 23d.—The latest outrage of the Ku-Klux occurred at Smithville Sunday night, in which Robert Glover and his family were almost roasted to death. About midnight a party of men assembled about the house and demanded that Glover come out. This he refused to do, and the rascals began pouring a volley of shot into the building from revolvers, shotguns and rifles. Some of the bullets entered the window, and narrowly missed the inmates. Glover returned the fire, and wounded several of his assailants. The Ku-klux men then rode up and threw coal oil on the house, and set it on fire, and when Glover attempted to extinguish the flames shot at him, and he was compelled to retreat. The inmates stood the heat as long as possible, fearing to flee lest they be shot, but at last they were compelled to leave the house. Mrs. Glover was fired at, but escaped unhurt. Her husband was wounded seriously, but under the cover of smoke they were enabled to gain the woods, and thus escape. The house, with the furniture, was totally destroyed.

New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, March 23d—3 P. M.—The stock market is decidedly weak. Since noon Oregon Transcontinental lost 2¼; New York Central, 2¼; Northern Pacific preferred and Lake Shore each 1½ per cent., and the rest of the list fractional amounts. During the last hour a portion of the loss was recovered, only to be lost again. The market was feverish and irregular, and at about the lowest figures of the day.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—Northern Railway sixes, 110 bid; Arizona sixes, 104 bid; New Mexico sixes, 104¾; Southern Pacific sixes, 110½.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—Central Pacific, 41½; Burlington, 133½; Rio Grande, 16; Northern Pacific, 25; preferred, 55½; Northwestern, 106½; New York Central, 102¾; Oregon Navigation, 99½; Transcontinental, 28; Pacific Mail, 49¾; Panama, 98; Rock Island, 26¾; St. Louis and San Francisco, 20; St. Paul and Omaha, 36½; Texas-Pacific, 11¾; Union Pacific, 47¾; Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, 121; Western Union, 63¼.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Desperate Fighting Between the French and Hovas.

LONDON, March 23d.—The African mail steamer, which arrived at Plymouth to-day, brings news of desperate fighting between the French and Hovas in Madagascar. About the end of February the Hovas, under General Willoughby, attacked 3,000 French troops, routed them with heavy loss, and pursued them to Lamatine. The French houses and stores in Lamatine were shelled by the Hovas and destroyed. The Hovas then returned to the capital. Their losses were small. A few days later General Sherrington surprised 4,000 Sakalavas, preceded by 250 Frenchmen and their machine guns. The Sakalavas were routed, forty being killed and many wounded. This is the first news of a French rupture in Madagascar, and has created a great sensation.

Vehement Speech from Gladstone.

NEW YORK, March 23d.—The Herald's London special to-day says: Gladstone, in the House of Commons last night, looked unusually weak, weary and perplexed. While only a listener during a motion of Howard Vincent to increase the estimates for the volunteers, Gladstone's face flushed, and he appeared to be laboring under great excitement. This broke out in his answering speech, which was vehemently delivered and with many personalities. He, however, beat the motion, but by the narrow majority of 21. The Telegraph calls his speech a lecture and "a sound castigation administed to the luckless Howard Vincent, and an opposition almost too much astonished to groan." The Tory Post is bitter on the speech, describing the Premier as violating etiquette in not allowing the War Minister to answer Mr. Vincent, and using the "language of passion, sarcasm and abuse." Even the Liberal News describes the speech as one "of extraordinary vehemence."

Pasteur's First Failure.

PARIS, March 23d.—Nineteen Russians arrived here, and were placed under Pasteur's care, on March 15th. All had been attacked by mad wolves and terribly lacerated. Pasteur willingly undertook to treat them, and at once placed them in his hospital. The man who died last night had been carefully operated on, and regularly inoculated with virus twice a day since he arrived. His terrible death, with all the symptoms of hydrophobia in its worst form, has seriously shocked public confidence in the effectiveness of Pasteur's discovery. The first positive indications that the patient's system was resisting the treatment manifested themselves on Sunday, after he had been in the hospital five days. He soon afterwards became the victim of most terrible suffering, and this seemed to increase hourly up to the time of his death, which occurred while the man was mad and wild with physical torture. The corpse has been removed to Pasteur's laboratory, where it will be made the subject of experiment by scientists. M. Pasteur is much annoyed by the unfavorable comments caused by the failure of his method, but he insists that it establishes nothing.

A Leading Anarchist Dead.

BERLIN, March 23d.—Herr Knaurhause, leader of the German-speaking Anarchists in London, died Saturday, at the Middlesex Hospital in that city. After Herr Most had gone to New York Knaurhause, by working secretly with untiring energy, managed to dispatch to the continent hundreds of copies of Most's paper, the Freiheit.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Prospects of Tariff Legislation—Chinese Restriction—Secretary Manning Injured.

[SPECIAL BY TELEGRAPH TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

United States Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 23d.—The Chair laid before the Senate a number of House bills, among them the bill granting a pension of $2,000 a year to the widow of General Hancock. On motion the bill was at once passed.

Ingalls' resolution of inquiry, offered yesterday, was agreed to, asking whether the Postmaster-General had received the Senate resolution calling for information as to fourth-class Postmasters removed under the present Administration.

The Chair laid before the Senate Logan's bill to promote the efficiency of the army.

Manderson spoke in favor of the section increasing the force to 40,000 enlisted men. He read from the testimony given and the letters written by Generals Schofield, Pope and others, to show the inadequacy of the present force.

The unfinished business, being the Judiciary Committee's resolutions, was then taken up, and Jackson addressed the Senate in opposition to them.

At 1:50 the pending order was laid aside, and, on motion of Van Wyck, the Senate took up and passed the bill to confirm the entries heretofore made on public lands in accordance with the rulings of the Land Office in force at the time the entries were made.

At 2 o'clock the Judiciary Committee resolutions were again placed before the Senate, and Jackson resumed his speech in opposition to the majority report.

After debate the Senate adjourned.

House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, March 23d.—Reagan, from the Committee on Commerce, reported back the Senate bill to establish a national live-stock highway and promote the commerce in live stock between the States. House calendar.

In the morning hour the House passed the Fourth of July claims bill. The amount involved is $238,200. A number of bills were introduced.

At the expiration of the morning hour the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Indian appropriation bill.

After debate the committee rose and Barnes of Missouri submitted the conference report on the urgent deficiency bill, and it was agreed to.

Adjourned.

Chinese Restriction in the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, March 23d.—To-day's session of the Cabinet was devoted to the consideration of measures designed to secure a more rigid enforcement of the Chinese restriction law, particularly with reference to preventing the landing of Chinese laborers on fraudulent certificates. It was represented that trouble constantly arises in cases where immigrants claim to have lost or mislaid their certificates, and bring witnesses to prove that they were in this country at the time of the passage of the Act, and were actually provided with the certificate prescribed by law, which entitled such persons to return to the United States after a visit to China.

Not a Candidate.

WASHINGTON, March 23d.—It has been reported that Senator Stanford was tired of official life, and would seek retirement if he were assured that his successor would be a Republican. It has since been reported that Stanford has made up his mind to resign in the event that the next Legislature is Republican. A correspondent asked Senator Stanford whether he contemplated resigning as soon as he was assured that his successor would be a Republican. He replied that he did not care to say anything on the subject. He said that he did not often correct misstatements in the press about himself, but he would like to deny certain rumors that had got into print about him. "I am not a candidate for the Presidency," he said emphatically, "and I wish you would publish a denial of all the statements and rumors to that effect. I am not doing anything to promote my nomination, nor are any of my friends doing so with my consent and knowledge. I presume there is no man in the country who would refuse a nomination if it was offered to him, but I am not seeking or working for it."

Mrs. Hearst Notified of Her Husband's Appointment.

WASHINGTON, March 23d.—Mrs. George W. Hearst to-night received a dispatch from Governor Stoneman informing her of the appointment of her husband to succeed the late Senator Miller to-day. Considerable excitement was created by the receipt by Representative Felton of a dispatch from the City of Mexico, signed by one Vergus, asking information as to the address of Mrs. Hearst and son. As Mr. Hearst was known to be in Mexico, it was feared some accident had befallen him, but when inquiry was made of Mrs. Hearst by your correspondent she had just received the dispatch from Governor Stoneman indicated above, and was in a state of great happiness. She said that telegrams dispatched the day before yesterday found Mr. Hearst in the City of Mexico, and though she had no definite knowledge of his immediate whereabouts, she expected him in Washington shortly.

Collector Barnett.

WASHINGTON, March 23d.—Representative Henley to-day appeared before the Senate Finance Committee, and made a statement as to the efficiency of Barnett, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue. He said that the office had never before been so economically managed, and that there was no good ground to oppose his confirmation. The committee has not yet reached a decision in the case.

Secretary Manning Meets With an Accident.

WASHINGTON, March 23d.—Rumors have been afloat all the afternoon of the serious illness of Secretary Manning. They grew out of the fact that the Secretary had been taken home from the Treasury office in his carriage, and was carried from his office to the carriage, being unable to walk. Upon inquiry at the Secretary's residence it was stated that he had simply met with a painful accident while returning to his office from a meeting of the Cabinet. He had walked

THE NEW SENATOR.

Concerning the appointment of Mr. Hearst to be United States Senator, the people must await the evolution of time to determine the fitness of the appointee as regards capacity. We have now to do with the appointment as related to the present. It was conceded that it would go by partisan favor, of course. Some there were so vain as to hope that the Governor would fill the remnant of Senator Miller's term with one of like political faith, on the ground that the expressed will of the people should not be cut short in that office by the misfortune of death. We have neither entertained the hope nor desired such an end. It is too much to expect in this, or, for the matter of that, in any other period, so long as party ambitions remain factors in national activities. It was not desirable even that the conventional should be evaded in this case. A brief term remains in one of the Senatorial positions; a Democratic administration, by the will of the people, dominates in California; it is fitting and natural, therefore, that the appointing power should reflect its political faith in filling the vacancy. In the appointment of Mr. Hearst the Governor has chosen the man the Democratic party had, by the votes of its representatives, put in the line of succession for any Senatorial vacancy that might occur. Mr. Hearst was the Democratic caucus nominee at the last Senatorial election. His party expressed its confidence in him, and its desire that he should be invested with the great trust. Governor Stoneman has done, therefore, precisely what was to have been expected of him—given vitality to the desire of that political division of the people who are of like party faith with himself. Mr. Hearst goes up to the Senate, then, with the indorsement of the Democratic voters of California, and the Governor, in giving that indorsement official approval, has moved upon precisely the plane of political ethics we would have expected on the part of a Governor owing allegiance to the Republican party.

A JUST REBUKE.

Very timely there comes to the front a declaration that tallies precisely with our suggestion the other day, that the insinuations of the San Francisco Chronicle that the railway company is hand-in-glove with Eastern fruit rings and managers, and has secret understandings with fruit market manipulators to "cinch" California fruit-growers, springs from sheer viciousness and a disordered imagination. The journal referred to is forever discovering railroad mares' nests, and the latest is in the Fruit Union. We pointed out the utter absurdity of its suggestion that the railway company was attempting to throttle its own interests by choking off fruit-growing, and showed that the supremest self-interest of railway managers resides in the up-building of fruit-growing and fruit-shipping industries; in encouraging a multitude of growers with small orchards, and in carrying large tonnage at low rates, instead of desiring a few growers with large acreage, and the carriage of small tonnage at high rates. The Sacramento fruit-growers evidently saw that the charges tended to place them in the attitude of indorsing them if they remained silent, since it was their effort that was commended in that connection. They therefore have taken occasion to voice their sentiments on the question, and this they do in unmistakable terms. The resolutions of the growers appear in full in our report this morning of the proceedings of yesterday's session. These men certainly know what they are talking about. It is their business to know, and when they declare that there is no ground for the insinuation referred to, it must be taken as a protest against the attempt to make the movement here take on a phase foreign to it.

THE memorial of the merchants of San Francisco, on the Hawaiian Treaty, has been presented to the Congressional Ways and Means Committee. It is a vigorous and impregnable argument in favor of retaining the treaty relation. It clearly shows that our commerce, the dictates of economy, the success of the treaty from the day of its final ratification in 1876, and the interests of the Pacific States, all advise its continuance in force. The memorialists make a strong point when they say that should the treaty be abrogated Germany or England will succeed us in influence as well as trade, and our months would be closed to object. It denounces as irrational that policy that expects to reject trade and retain influence. It concludes with these vigorous lines:

By the effect of the treaty we hold the acknowledged key to the North Pacific. We have peacefully and cheaply what has been deemed essential to our security and tranquillity by the prescient statesmanship of half a century. The importance of our advantage was so manifest to others, that British, French and German statesmen earnestly protested, and Great Britain gravely assured the Hawaiian Government that they could not allow the treaty to become operative. These Powers recognize Hawaii as the gateway of peaceful commerce, and the point d'appui for operations of war in the Pacific. Could Great Britain dictate Congressional action for one day this treaty would be abrogated as a first measure. A wise public policy made the treaty; a wise public policy will continue it if private interests are to be subordinated to the public good.

KING KALAKAUA is advancing in the arts of civilization. On the 7th inst. he did that which no other King ever attempted—he took to the rostrum as a lecturer. His subject was on the formation of the Hawaiian group. He addressed about 800 people for over an hour, and interested them thoroughly—something not a few lecturers fail to do. It was certainly a strange spectacle to see one of the annointed, a crowned King, standing up before a wall covered with geological and geographical diagrams, and with a long "pointer" in his hand advancing and defending original theories regarding the processes of nature by which the kingdom he rules was upheaved from the waters of the Pacific. In the course of his lecture the King took occasion to express his disapproval of Chinese immigration, and to declare his belief that the Hawaiians cannot afford to give the Chinaman a foothold in the island kingdom. The reasons he advanced square in most respects with the views held by Californians on the question of Chinese immigration.

WHY should we complain that the political demagogue seeks to make a hobby-horse of the anti-Chinese agitation? He would not be true to his calling else. His attempt to ride into prominence and power, however, on the crest of the great popular wave of the day will prove futile. The voters of this day are not to be caught with chaff. The anti-Chinese movement was born without aid from the midwifery of the political trimmer. It came to a fair age without his countenance, and it will attain its majority whether he aids or condemns it. Difference of opinions as to methods cause turmoil and timidity now, and may possibly lead to extravagance, impolitic and even cruel action, but the edict of the American system has been issued against Chinese encroachment. Unless the forces of progress cease to operate, it will be made effective, lawfully and peaceably.

SENATOR STANFORD says he seldom takes the trouble to correct newspaper misstatements about himself. Which proves his wisdom. He is willing to trust to time and history to justify him. And the pure man can always afford to do this. He who once attempts to respond to the assaults of the news reporters and scandal mongers and "correspondents" of Washington, will have no time to do anything else.

THE frankness of Alderman Jachne, of New York, is simply sublime. He admits that he sold his vote to the street railway projectors; that he valued his vote at $20,000 and got his price, and always sold when the offer was sufficiently large. No such trifling obstacle as an oath to be true to the laws and to duty, stands in the way of such New York legislators when the nimble sixpence presents its claims.

THE Book-Buyer's London correspondent is of the opinion that "letter-writing is becoming almost a lost art." Perhaps it is as well. The much-writing of letters has been the cause of untold embarrassment. The discreet man commits himself in no letters.

THE RAILROAD WAR.

The Advance in Overland Passenger Rates.

[San Francisco Bulletin, March 23d.]

Overland railroad fares were advanced $7 50 by all routes this morning, in consequence of the demand of the Iowa lines, extending from the Missouri river to Chicago, that they should be given the full amount of the fare exacted before the opening of the railroad war. This amounted to $12 50, which has, since the war began, been reduced to $5. At a meeting of passenger agents last night it was, after some discussion, agreed to raise rates $7 50 to-day. The Atlantic and Pacific representative, Mr. Bissell, did not appear to be very anxious to raise rates, and the manner in which his consent was given, with the proviso that nothing should be binding upon him, rendered some of the members of the conference suspicious of the peaceable intentions of the rivals of the Southern Pacific Company. It was evident from the meeting that the Atlantic and Pacific, and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroads had not yet had enough war, and were ready for another scrimmage at any time. There were expectations in some quarters that something might occur to-day to put a little more life in the situation, which has, until the present raise of fares, remained unchanged for some time.

It is not believed by railroad men that the increase in rates will benefit to any extent the Iowa lines, for the reason that before the week is out commissions will be given fully covering the amount of the increase. These commissions will not, probably, be given to the passenger, but to persons who take passengers to certain railroad offices. The railroads, therefore, will not gain anything from the increase in rates, and the public will gain little or nothing from the giving of commissions.

Railroad men who are in a position to know, if any one knows, just how the fight stands at present, state that affairs are so mixed that it is impossible to tell how the rival roads stand in relation to each other. It is probable that the war will have to go on until the contending parties are able to see more clearly than they do now where they stand. The contest has already been so long and so stubborn, and the losses are thought to be so large, that a feeling of anxiety is beginning to creep into the breasts of railroad employes concerning their tenure of office on their salaries, in view of the economy which will have to be practiced by the roads after the war has closed. Never, in railroad history, has such a war of competition been waged, and no contending railroads have ever shown the determination and staying powers as have the roads engaged in the present fight, and in the face of the most terrible slaughter of rates that has ever been known. When the end will come, no man pretends to know.

San Francisco Money Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23d.—The demand for money at the local banks appears to be quiet. There is more or less hesitancy in branching out with new enterprises or pushing existing ones beyond points that can be easily covered. Rates remain as for some months, namely 6@8, with 7 as an average figure for the general run of commercial paper. The record under this head for the past week has been as follows:

Lender.	Loans.	Amount.
Hibernia Bank	9	$41,650
French Bank	1	1,600
German Bank	4	13,800
Humboldt Bank	2	8,500
S. F. Union	3	5,400
Savings and Loan	3	2,150
Miscellaneous	29	22,400
Totals	42	$102,950

All the loans of the Hibernia Bank were at 6 per cent., including one of $15,000 for one year and another of $13,500 for two years. Exchange is quiet. Few grain bills offering.

THE pain and misery suffered by those who are afflicted with dyspepsia are indescribable. The relief which is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla has caused thousands to be thankful for this great medicine. It dispels the causes of dyspepsia, and tones up the digestive organs.

THE ANTI-CHINESE MOVEMENT.

Comments of the Press of the State Concerning It.

[St. Helena Times.]

The boycott is a weapon that never was intended for indiscriminate use among the free citizens of America. It is an invention that has a foreign patent stamped upon it, and much care and caution should be exercised in bringing it into use here. It is worse than a two-edged sword—it not only cuts both ways, but cuts in every direction. The inventor of the boycott, we venture to say, was not a patriotic citizen. We stick to the sentiment that "the Chinese must go," but peaceful and legal remedies must be adopted in order to get rid of them. We are in favor of Senator Mitchell's bill. Give us that, and the country will be rid of the filthy Mongolians in a year or two.

[Merced Star.]

We desire the prompt and absolute exclusion of Chinese from the right to land on American soil, and we desire, by all constitutional and legal means, to hasten the departure of every Chinese coolie from the soil of the Union.

[Petaluma Courier.]

Without Congressional aid we can do nothing towards settling our difficulties. We have a few men here who think they can whip Uncle Sam and the whole United States, and force the old fellow to adopt a plan of boycotting among their fellow citizens or any other system they please without regard to treaties, traditions or principles. Would any good citizen of the county, native born or naturalized, desire our Government to disgrace itself by violating a treaty, even with the Chinese? It is this disposition to do so that has injured our prospects in Congress, and with the Administration, where our only hope of ultimate relief rests. The curbstone statesmen of Petaluma can't decide this important question. While we all favor getting rid of the Chinese just as fast as possible by not employing them, boycotting our own fellow citizens will not have the desired result. Boycotting, as we have said before, is a game that two can play at, and if boycottees think the boycotters will not remember and fight against them, they are most wonderfully mistaken.

[Greenville Bulletin.]

One trouble is that an election is soon to be held, and the bad element of both parties is trying to ride into office by frothy and menacing oratory against the Chinese. They will fail, because their true character, that of mere politicians, and that of a base type, will be made plain ere the people are called upon to cast the ballot next fall. The people of this coast are a unit in their desire to get rid of the Chinese; but the better element know that only effective relief must come through the medium of the National Government. It may be put down as certain that Governor Stoneman is soldier enough to quell riotous attempts at the removal of the Chinese, and that if he cannot muster for that purpose a sufficient force in the State, the President will use the whole power of the Government in support of the Governor.

[Oregonian.]

This was the situation when the "agitation" reached Oregon City. The proprietors of the mills were employing 39 Chinese, intending to exchange them for whites as soon as reliable men could be secured and trained technically. But the agitators were not content, and drove the Chinese from their employment. With great forbearance the mill proprietors made no attempt at retaliation, but undertook to continue operations with such a crew of green hands as they could pick up in the places of the evicted Chinese. And ever since the mill has been running in lame-duck fashion. It now operates four days in the week, a lay-over of two days being necessary to enable the department in which green hands are employed to catch up with the other departments operated by the old hands. Thus, nearly a hundred and fifty people are forced to be idle two days of each week and made to suffer the loss of one-third of their weekly income. But this is not the worst. The establishment is running at a dead loss, so its proprietors report, and there is danger of its being shut down for an indefinite period. The market for cloths is dull and the conditions of operating here are bad. Oregon City is in danger of losing her chief industry through the foolish and criminal action of her scrub element. Already business is dull and the town is under the severe grind of hard times.

[Livermore Herald.]

At recent meetings of the Livermore Anti-Chinese League, an effort has been made to inaugurate a boycott against every citizen of our town or valley who may, from choice or necessity, see fit to patronize or employ Chinese. In other words, it is proposed to withdraw from such persons the patronage of the community, or such portion thereof as will join in the boycott, and break up their business. They are either to do as the boycotters dictate or be crippled in business, and driven from the community. This is the plan proposed at the last two meetings of the League. Fortunately, the good sense of the meeting prevailed, and the proposition was voted down in each instance. Such a boycott is not needed in this community. Our few Chinese can be replaced with white labor by the use of moral suasion, but never by an attempt at forcing matters. Our people are not used to being bullied into doing the bidding of others. The moment such a boycott would be inaugurated, fully one-half of the 400 persons who have signed the roll would withdraw, leave the boycott a forlorn hope, and set the Chinamen to laughing. Boycott the Chinamen, gentlemen, but confine your use of that power to that people.

[Petaluma Argus.]

After quoting the resolutions adopted by the Executive Committee of the Non-Partisan Anti-Chinese Association, in which the general boycott is postponed until November 10th, the Argus says: In the above there is discernable a glimmer of returning reason. Sober second thought has prevented the people of that city, only second in importance in the State, from acting with precipitate haste upon a question of very large proportions. But that action will not be satisfactory to either loony zealots or political demagogues. The former seem anxious for a reign of terror—the latter are equally anxious to bestride a hobby that will carry them to place and power. This was very manifest in the Sacramento Convention. Men fell down whom we very much regretted to see fall. We have, however, become accustomed to having our idols shattered.

[Amador Sentinel.]

The Convention resolved to boycott the Chinamen. We can see no objection to that, though it is urged it means starvation to the Chinaman. We do not think it is so bad as that: besides, they have money now, and can pack up and go to some place where they are wanted. Mexico wants a good many of them; let them go there. The principle is said to be un-American, but has not a man in the United States a right to buy of whom he pleases and what he pleases, provided he can pay for it or his credit's good? That is what boycotting means, if we understand the meaning of the word.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lane last evening celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. There assembled in their residence, 1314 Eighth street, as many of their immediate friends as could be comfortably accommodated, handsome souvenir cards having been issued for the occasion. Congratulations were extended with a heartiness that left no doubt of their sincerity, and a social reunion followed such as is born only of mutual esteem. Refreshments were served of a choice character, and mementoes of the silver anniversary presented to the couple.

H. E. P. sends us the following note: "Whoever remembers of a more stormy day than Wednesday, the 17th inst.? Rain poured down in torrents; yet notwithstanding the unpropitious weather, a large number of carriages were seen wending their way toward Live Oak, to attend a ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Johnny King. Soon after twilight we all arrived at our destination, and were cordially met by our genial host and his amiable lady. The house was soon filled to repletion. The doors of the newly-enlarged dancing hall were thrown open, and music and dancing followed until the dancers were called to partake of a bountiful turkey supper. Mr. and Mrs. King were assiduous in their efforts for our pleasure and happiness (as we all knew they would be), and with such success that Dame Aurora opened the eastern portals unawares, and compelled us to take a hasty leave."

The Symptoms OF LIVER COMPLAINT

Are a bitter or bad taste in mouth, pain in back, sides or joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; sour stomach, loss of appetite, bowels alternately costive and lax, headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; debility, low spirits, a thick, yellow appearance of the skin and eyes; a dry cough often mistaken for Consumption.

Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and death will ensue.

AN OPEN LETTER!

AN ANSWER TO HENRY WARD BEECHER.

WHEN I WAS A SCHOOL BOY OF THE Union School District of this county, I there learned there were three distinct classifications of the human race, viz: Barbarous, half-civilized and civilized. After having arrived at maturity I asked myself what were the principles upon which these three distinct classifications of government were founded, and I was forced to answer four, viz: Religious, political, intellectual and social freedom. Is the Chinaman religiously equal? Is he intellectually equal? Is he socially equal with us? Or does he possess any of the qualifications that would make him politically our equal? These are questions that have been answered by almost every thinking man of California, in whom Mr. Beecher says the animal predominates. If H. W. B. could spare a little time from his hide-bound, puritanic, philanthropic theology, and become a wage-earner of this State, he would be forced to the study of the science of sociology and the designs of the organization of government.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Only in Self-Defense.

The statement having been published that a tramp was badly beaten and misused by the brakemen of the Marysville train last Saturday, Conductor T. E. Gaither, who had charge of the train at the time referred to, upon being questioned yesterday, denied the statements made, and said that the brakemen referred to acted in self-defense. The conductor says that the persistence with which tramps now board all trains, and when baffled in their attempts to steal rides, often act grossly insulting, tries the patience of the train men to the very utmost. Not only this, but tramps are often vicious, and are ready to do harm to life or property if their demands are not complied with.

In the present case the tramp was discovered riding on the brake-beam when the train arrived at Wheatland. He was made to dislodge, but did not take it kindly and swore he would go to Marysville on the train if the train went. He continued to move about in a menacing manner, enforcing his actions with a strong mixture of profanity, until the train left, when he disappeared. It was soon after discovered that he had succeeded in boarding the moving train, and had regained his former "reserved seat"—the brakebeam. The train was stopped, and one of the brakemen was compelled to crawl under the car and pull the tramp from his hiding place. The brakeman was a small man, and the tramp a large and vicious-looking individual. He commenced making direful threats at the brakeman, and was determined to get on again. The brakeman kept preventing this, when the tramp suddenly thrust his hand behind him into his hip pocket. The brakeman believing he was going to pull a revolver upon him, struck him three or four times with his fist, knocking him to the ground. The train then started, and the tramp when last seen was hurling threats of vengeance at the train men, and promising in the most impressive manner that they would see him again. The conductor says the tramp was not left insensible, as has been published, nor was he lying there when the express came past several hours later, for soon after the occurrence he went to Wheatland and eat a hearty dinner. The statement of conductor Gaither is fully corroborated be several others who were witnesses to all that took place.

Fire Alarms Yesterday.

About 12:15 P. M. yesterday an alarm of fire was sounded from box No. 32, in consequence of the discovery that in some unknown manner the bedding of an unoccupied room at the Pacific Hotel had caught fire. The trouble was ended before the Fire Department arrived.

The alarm at 1:45 P. M., from box No. 15, was occasioned by the burning of a small double stable, belonging to the Captain Brooks estate, and located in the alley between Fifth and Sixth, N and O streets. It was not much more than a shed, and though pretty thoroughly destroyed, the loss does not amount to much. There were two horses in it at the time of the fire, but they were saved. A small quantity of hay was burned. The origin of the blaze was unknown.

While driving rapidly to the last fire, Assistant Engineer O'Meara, turning from Seventh street into L too rapidly, was thrown out in consequence of his buggy almost upsetting, and, falling against the sidewalk, was considerably bruised and received a scalp wound. The horse was stopped on L street, near Sixth, and O'Meara went to the fire notwithstanding his hurts.

As the hook and ladder truck was flying up K street, Ed. Cox, of Company No. 1, attempted to jump upon the vehicle, but made a miscalculation, fell and bounded over the cobbles like a rubber ball. Fortunately he did not get hurt much.

Police Matters.

H. F. Dillman, Chief of Police elect, has filed his official bond, in the sum of $5,000, with Daniel Brown and J. G. Davis as sureties, in the office of the County Clerk.

Yesterday morning the Chief that is to be and the other members of the Police Commission met and had a quiet consultation, presumably relative to the election for officers which is expected to take place early in April. There are many gentlemen, who saved the Democratic party at the recent municipal election, willing to take places on the force if they are urged to do so; but they surely are not all appreciated, for one of the Police Commissioners was overheard, a day or two ago, urging a certain substantial citizen to place himself in the hands of his friends, and allow his name to go before the Board when it meets to select officers, saying that just the right kind of men were scarce. And yet the citizen refused!

Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday the case of J. R. Patterson, for embezzlement, was dismissed on motion of the prosecuting witness, L. H. Todhunter.....D. Cappola, who was tried on the previous day for disturbing the peace, and the case taken under advisement, was discharged.....Pat Martin, arrested for battering "Bony" Sewell with a cane, was convicted and fined $20 or twenty days.....John Collins, charged with petit larceny, second offense, in stealing $2 25, property of John Maginnis, was held to answer in $1,000 bail.....Mary Smith and Jane Doe, two drunks, forfeited their deposits.....Frank Johnson and William Edwin pleaded guilty of petit larceny in stealing canned vegetables from the State House Hotel, and will receive sentence this morning.

MASQUERADE AND SKATING CARNIVAL.—There will be great fun this evening at Charles Deterding's Rink, Hangtown Crossing, on the occasion of the masquerade ball and skating carnival which he announces. There will be a prize for the best-sustained local character by a lady, the best by a gentleman, and one for the most comical costume. The Roseville Band, of eighteen pieces, will furnish music for the evening. Masks and costumes can be obtained at the hall this morning by those wishing them. Tickets of admission will be 50 cents; ladies, free.

FRUIT-GROWERS' COUNCIL.

Sacramento, Yolo, Yuba, Sutter and Placer Counties Heard From.

A meeting of the leading fruit-growers of this section was held yesterday afternoon at Grangers' Hall. At a meeting in the same hall on Wednesday last the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That an independent association of the fruit-growers of Sacramento and adjacent counties be formed.

In accordance with that resolution, the Chair appointed the following committee upon organization and by-laws: G. W. Hancock, R. D. Stephens, C. W. Reed, L. H. Fassett and Erskine Greer.

At the meeting yesterday the committee made no written report, but verbally recommended the following: That any stockholder shall have the right to ship fruit or vegetables grown by himself, and may purchase fruit or vegetables of any or all stockholders thereof, and ship the same in carload lots by the trains chartered by the Association to any point of destination, and to such consignee as desired, provided a satisfactory guarantee is first given to the Association for prompt payment of all costs for transportation upon demand. Also that stock shall be issued on the basis of 20 cents an acre, one-half of which will be collected immediately to defray the expenses of incorporating and other incidental expenses. The incorporation not to be created for the purpose of assessing the stockholders to pay officials princely salaries, but solely with the object of securing a concert of action among the many fruit-raisers that will in turn secure the reduction of freight, the only object sought to be obtained by the producer.

Remarks were made by many present, all of whom belonged to the Fruit Growers' Union, and all of whom denounced in the severest terms the action of the Trustees of that corporation for turning over the Union to Porter Brothers. The action of the Trustees on the 16th of February at a meeting at the Golden Eagle Hotel, was referred to as being in the line of the policy outlined by the by-laws of the Association. Subsequent action at a meeting in San Francisco was against the producer, and directly in favor of placing him in the hands of what might prove to be a monopoly, the soul object of which would be to enrich Porter Brothers and a few of their friends at the expense of the entire Union. Some of the speakers spoke very plainly upon this subject, not hesitating, as they said, to "call things by their proper names." All the speakers desired was to perfect an organization as cheaply as possible, to secure a concert of action, so that there would be no trouble in making up trains with the requisite number of cars as often as required to handle their crop, and with this showing to railroad officials the terms desired could be obtained. There was to be no unnecessary assessments, no fat offices for gentlemen of leisure, but a concert of action upon strictly business principles, that would secure to each grower all the advantages and profits possible.

P. W. Butler, of Penryn, Placer county, representing a local fruit-growers' association of that place, who own nearly 400 shares in the Fruit Growers' Union, personally approved of the proposition. In the course of his remarks he said: It is claimed that Porter Bros. have superior facilities for placing the fruits of California on the Eastern markets, and this is the principal reason given by Trustees of the Union for placing all our business in their hands. If, as is predicted, we send ten times as much fruit East during the coming season than on any previous year, why cannot the Union employ men to sell this great increase, as well as Porter Bros., or any other firm, as their present force is comparatively insignificant, compared to the help required to dispose of our products under the proposed reduction of freights?

The advantage to the Union would be enormous, as all business established would belong to them, and could be used in their interests continuously. While if Porter Bros. build up this trade, it is done at the expense of the Union, and if, at the termination of the present contract, it is not renewed, then Porter Bros. continue to own all the machinery of this established business, and by its continued use would become most formidable rivals to the producers, who created them as such, through the action of their Directors.

If the Union was doing its own business, whenever any market was well supplied, if it had surplus fruit, rather than increase its sales in such market by a reduction of price, it would move to more remote points and make sales, even at increased expenses, for by so doing regular prices could be maintained when trade was permanently established.

If Porter Brothers handle all their fruit they will naturally—having no rivals—dispose of it at the least possible expense to themselves, and in a manner to give them the greatest net profit, even if by making extra effort the fruit could be sold at a much higher price; if the extra expense to them was greater in amount than their commission, it would not be done.

As an illustration. At a point where Porter Bros. have an agency an additional car of fruit could be sold at $1 per box, when the regular price was $1 25. It would be in their interest to sell at such reduction rather than place it in another market where they have no agent, and sell for $1 25, if the extra cost of selling there was to them more than 2½ cents per box, which would be their commission on the extra selling price, while the gain to the Union would be 22½ cents per box. There is practically no restriction placed upon them that they are compelled to observe, and they thereby have a gigantic monopoly.

It is now proposed to organize a company of sufficient force to ship fruit in train lots independent of the Union (each shipper controlling his own products).

The question now arises, if this action is taken will not there be a bitter rivalry between these two great companies in the selling of their fruits in the East, each striving to cripple the other in order to control the business? In proof of this, one of the trustees of the Union is reported as saying that he would himself furnish half a dozen cars of fruit to be sacrificed, if necessary, to draw other shippers from the market who might place fruit there in competition with Porter Bros.

P. E. Platt, of the fruit-shipping firm of Strong & Co, said that firm and other firms in this city were willing to join this proposed association, and each take 500 shares of stock. They would do this to insure the getting up of the requisite number of cars to form trains and secure the reduction in freight. He was authorized to state that Marysville would go in with the association and fruit-growers in Sutter and adjoining counties. He believed that such an organization would work well, all could be accommodated, and the reduction of freight secured without a peradventure. If the freight was so reduced the fruit could be placed upon the Eastern market at a price so cheap that instead of being regarded—as it is now—a luxury, it would become a necessity, and all that could be shipped would meet with rapid sale. He figured up that during the fruit-shipping season, at the lowest estimate, sixty-two cars a week would be shipped from Sacramento. The cars loaded at Roseville, Penryn and Auburn could be billed with the same train. To place all this business in the hands of one man or one firm would be a monopoly vast beyond conception. It would drive out all local shippers. This is entirely unnecessary. All the producer and shipper, whose interest in this matter is mutual, desires to get is a $300 rate, and thus increase their market. Once this association is formed (there is little difficulty attending the shipments), there should be no misunderstandings or difficulties.

Mr. Boggs, of Newcastle, and Mr. Silva, of the same place, stated that all they desired was to be allowed the privilege of attaching their cars to the Sacramento trains, and for that purpose would become members of the association. They did not, nor would not if they could avoid doing so, ship any of their fruit with the Union.

G. W. Hancock denounced the action of the Trustees of the Union in the severest terms. So far as he was concerned, the Union was dead. They had in reality sold the stockholders out to Porter Brothers, and their act would stand for one year. He advised all who held stock in the Union to pay up on it and hold it for a day would come when they would have a voice in electing a new Board of Trustees, who would look to the development of the fruit interest of the State, and not an eye only for the creation of a monopoly, which meant ruin to all fruit-growers and the enrichment of a single fruit firm.

The number of acres that took stock was a little in excess of 4,000, and will be doubled at the next meeting, as many of the larger fruit raisers were not represented, but are directly interesting themselves in the matter.

A committee to draft by-laws and perfect an organization was appointed by the Chair, as follows: R. D. Stephens, Senator Routier, H. Weinstock, E. B. Silva and G. W. Hancock.

The following resolutions were introduced and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, An attempt has been made to construe the action of the fruit-growers of Sacramento county into an expression of belief that the Southern Pacific Railway Company is seeking to establish a monopoly of the fruit business in the hands of one person or organization; therefore,

Resolved, That we, fruit-growers of Sacramento and adjacent counties, unhesitatingly express our disbelief in such charge, and deny that any such idea has obtained amongst us.

Resolved, That we believe, from our knowledge of the fruit transportation business, and we have the assurance, that said company has not taken and will not take any action to discourage any effort of fruit-growers to find and maintain an Eastern market. That we do not believe that there is entertained by said company any other sentiment than that of the utmost friendliness to the fruit-growing interests, and a strong desire to promote in all safe and legitimate ways the development of the fruit resources of the State, and to advance the interests of producers generally. That we believe it is the aim of that company to treat all fruit shippers and growers impartially and alike.

The meeting then adjourned, to meet at the same place Friday, March 26th, at 1 P. M.

BRIEF NOTES.

Services in St. Paul's Church to-day will be omitted.

Charles A. Jenkins' open letter to Henry Ward Beecher appears in another column.

R. W. Lewis, who was stricken by paralysis Monday morning, is dangerously ill.

The overland express will be about an hour late in its arrival from the East this morning.

The Presbyterian Church choir will give a concert at the church on the evening of Tuesday next.

The steamer Dover arrived from the upper Sacramento yesterday with a barge load of grain.

Otto Fleming was arrested yesterday by officer Coffey, and Wm. Leonard, by officer Kent, both for having been drunk.

The Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson Baseball Club will go over to Davisville next Sunday to play a game with the club of that place.

The box office of the Clunie Opera House will be opened Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, when seats for the "Fantasma" can be secured.

The specifications for work for the city, now prepared by the City Trustees, provide that Chinese labor shall not be employed, nor any material made by Chinese.

Governor Stoneman yesterday appointed Hon. George Hearst, of San Francisco, as United States Senator from California, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Miller.

Deputy Sheriff Griffiths, of Visalia, came up yesterday, en route for Marysville, to get Frank Murray, arrested by the police of that city for grand larceny, on dispatches sent by Griffiths.

Deputy Sheriff W. J. Oaks, of Tulare county, passed through the city yesterday, taking to the State Prison at Folsom a man giving the name of Fielding Bacon (!), who is to serve one year for grand larceny in stealing hogs.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given this evening at Y. M. I. Hall, Seventh street, between K and L, by the Order of Good Templars. Excellent talent has been engaged for the occasion. Tickets (refreshments included) 25 cents.

On a dispatch received from Chief Crowley, of San Francisco, last evening, officer Coffey arrested at the depot a man named N. G. Hickman, who was on his way East. The dispatch accuses him of grand larceny, but no particulars regarding the matter were received by the Sacramento officers.

A gang of drunken hoodlums held high carnival in the eastern portion of the city Monday night, between the hours of 10 and 12. Their shouts, indecent songs and vulgar language kept people awake. The Chinese laundry at Ninth and F was riddled with stones and clubs, and the glass show window of Kuchler's bakery, at Tenth and F, was similarly wrecked.

There was .01 of an inch of rain in this city yesterday morning, according to the Signal Service measurements, a sprinkle at San Francisco and .07 of an inch at Red Bluff; none south of San Francisco. At 7 o'clock last night the barometer was rising rapidly in Washington Territory and Oregon, with westerly winds, a falling temperature and clear weather. In California the barometer was falling, with westerly winds and clear to cloudy weather.

Monday evening, at the Monumental saloon, on K street, a young man named Frank K. Cross, who was teaching the barkeeper something he wanted to know relative to a certain dance, was seized by a bulldog belonging to the saloon man, the animal believing his owner was being assaulted, and bitten very severely on the knee and arm, the flesh being shockingly lacerated, necessitating the taking of nearly a dozen stitches by a surgeon to close the wounds.

Coroner Clark held an inquest yesterday upon the remains of Peter Knaul, who was found hanging from a beam in the basement of his residence, M street, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second, Monday evening. The jury found that he was a native of Germany, 53 years of age, and that he came to his death from hanging, an act of his own hands and committed with suicidal intent. They also found that he had been drinking heavily for the past three months.

The west-bound express train was about five hours late in reaching the city yesterday, owing mainly to trouble cast of Ogden. It came through in two sections, the first of which, containing seven carloads of immigrant passengers, arrived here at 12:15 P. M., the other section getting in about forty minutes later. The western train, due here at 9 A. M., did not reach the city yesterday until 12:13 P. M., having waited at Lathrop for the southern connection. As the San Francisco local got in at 12:10, making three trains in five minutes, matters were very lively at the depot for a short time.

Early yesterday afternoon Chief Jackson, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Griffiths, of Visalia, were driving to the telegraph office in the Chief's cart, when, near the corner of Second and J streets, one of the wheels got into some sort of difficulty with the street railroad track, and, as a result, the axle broke at the hub, the wheel came off, and in a second Jackson found himself in a sitting posture on the cobbles, holding to the lines, while Griffiths was hacking him with all his weight to hold the horse. The latter was quite well-behaved, and made no trouble.

H. G. May has awarded to E. A. Boyer the contract for building him a fine residence on the north side of L street, between Ninth and Tenth—one door west of the corner of Tenth. The plans, drawn by James Seadler, show a handsome frame building with brick foundation, the contract price of which is about $5,200. Boyer has also the contract of putting another story upon the building on the southeast corner of Eighth and J streets, owned by Dr. Conrad, of San Francisco, and lately occupied as a dry goods store by C. H. Stevens & Co. The cost of the improvements will be $7,000.

In order to carry out their contract for the construction of a railroad from the New Almaden quicksilver mines to a connection with the Southern Pacific Railroad about four miles from San Jose, Turton & Knox commenced on the 16th instant shipping horses, wagons, carts and tools to San Jose from this city. Before the entire lot had been forwarded, however, the order of shipment was countermanded, and now it is rumored that everything will be brought back, there being some hitch relative to the procuring of the right of way for the proposed road.

The Governor has issued commissions to the following Notaries Public: Edward Harkness, Big Bend; Warren Sexton, John P. Leonard, Oroville; C. G. Sale, Fresno; E. R. Kinney, Kingsburg; John K. Dollison, Eureka; J. A. Cooper, Ukiah; A. C. Kistler, Cedarville; William K. Spencer, Grass Valley; James Jamison, Dutch Flat; Charles R. Parsons, Sacramento; H. W. Scott, Hollister; W. S. Campbell, San Francisco; E. M. Rosenthal, R. B. Buckner, San Jose; James C. Buttner, Felton; S. P. Rogers, Modesto; E. T. Buckman, Tulare City; E. J. Giddings, Visalia; J. Marion Brooks, San Buenaventura; P. M. Sullivan, Woodland; George Merritt, Marysville.

It was quite evident yesterday, during the last alarm of fire, that citizens were not complying with the city ordinance directing that they shall cease to draw water for purposes of irrigation, sprinkling, running elevators, etc., at a time when the water may be needed for fire purposes. The Stevens pump at the Water Works is receiving an overhauling, and has not been in service for a week. Consequently, with only the Holly to rely upon, great difficulty was yesterday experienced in keeping up a reasonable pressure for fire purposes. If it had been a large fire the water supply might have been inadequate. The authorities propose to make an example one of these days of some one who violates this fire ordinance.

ANTI-CHINESE.

F. R. Dray Defends the Action of the Local Organization.

The Executive Committee of the Citizens' Anti-Chinese Association met at the Court-house last evening.

Grove L. Johnson offered the following, which was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That each Anti-Chinese Club in Sacramento county be requested to send one representative to meet with the Executive and Advisory and Standing Committees of this Association on April 6th, for the purpose of consulting with said Executive and Advisory Committees as to the means best calculated to carry into effect the resolutions of the Anti-Chinese State Convention and of this Association.

F. R. Dray read the following, which will be mailed to the State Executive Committee with the indorsement of the local organization:

To the Anti-Chinese Association of Sacramento—GENTLEMEN: In reply to the resolutions published by the State Sub-Executive Committee condemning the action of this association, I will say that their act of condemnation was caused by ex parte statements of the acts of this association and myself on March 13, 1886, which were substantially as follows:

1. To withdraw our patronage from those who employ Chinese on and after May 1, 1886, which date, therefore, would become the commencement of that form of boycott.

2. Not to declare a general boycott until after November 10, 1886.

3. A committee of five were authorized to be appointed by the Chair to report every kind of business and all kinds of places of labor that could be specially boycotted on the report of the committee.

4. That the State Executive Committee adopt a label, or trade-mark, and a certificate for the use of all those persons, firms, etc., that should discharge their Chinese employes, to enable them to have the benefit of our patronage.

In defense of the action of this Association I have this much to say: The withdrawal of our patronage on the 1st of May seems to cover substantially the meaning of the first part of the declaration of the State Convention, to wit: "We are in favor at the very earliest moment of boycotting any person who employs Chinamen directly or indirectly." The latter part of said declaration reads as follows: "Or who purchases the product of Chinese labor." Now, I ask you how, in any common sense view of the matter, can the latter part of that declaration be put in force in boycott at once? Time must be given—a reasonable time—or you cannot succeed. The third resolution, appointing a committee of five to report all branches of business and places of labor for special and immediate boycotting, continues the system partially now in force. I do not believe this Association contemplates at this time the boycotting of individuals by publication. The fourth resolution is the most valuable part of the system you have adopted, and is in harmony with the whole.

The second resolution, "not to declare a general boycott till after November 10, 1886," is the time a general boycott might be declared in the extreme sense, which was fully debated at the time of its adoption on account of its being after the State election. That is covering all business completely. The boycotting of those who support the boycotted, and those who might support them, till we would be boycotting each other. Also that it would undoubtedly cover such boycotting as neighbor turning against neighbor; and the vicious would proclaim the Irish boycott, and refuse even to allow sales to the boycotted; and the still more vicious and depraved, inflamed by the violent language used by irresponsible public speeches in the election campaign, would indulge acts of violence, which it would not do for me here to even suggest. I fully realize now how much the people might be terrorized by the howling of intemperate men during an election campaign. Acts of violence occur more or less in all elections, but the proclamation of a general boycott would, in my opinion, add to its fury. And I will say to you that I know of one man, who carries on a large business, who has been compelled to abandon it for want of safety, and his machinery stands idle. I therefore defend this Association in each and every act up to this time.

There will be fully as much excitement as the good and welfare of the people of this State can stand in the fall elections, without adding to it the proclamation of a general boycott before the time named. I have always in public matters expressed my opinion, and I here reiterate that I believe the system this association has adopted is the best that could be devised under the circumstances existing in this county. If, in your opinion after reflection it is not, then it becomes your duty to change it. I know that all the acts of this association have been in good faith, as their work up to this time and the system adopted fully proves.

CHARGE VIRTUALLY DISMISSED.—The San Francisco Chronicle of yesterday says: "It is understood that the police will not press the charge made against the Merchants' Tea Company in face of the jury standing ten for acquittal to two for conviction, and that, too, when the defense put on no witnesses and made no argument. They realize, too, that the institution complained of has done nothing more than what scores of other establishments are doing in San Francisco, and for that matter all over the United States, and that to further prosecute the Merchants' Tea Company would savor of invidious prosecution."

INFORMATION WANTED.—Information is wanted of the whereabouts or death of George S. McNabb. He came to California from Missouri in 1849; was heard from in Stanislaus county, but no tidings have been received in ten years or more past. He was educated and a good writer; was medium size, black hair, and had lost one eye. Any information should be sent to Wm. Hall, Ketterman, Vernon county, Mo.

HOP-GROWERS' MEETING.—There will be a meeting of hop-growers at Grangers' Hall, Tenth and K streets, at 1 P. M. to-day, to consider matters relative to the interests of those engaged in the business, and all hop-growers are requested to be present.

AUCTION SALE.—Bell & Co. will sell at auction at 10 A. M. to-day at the Fountain Stables, two good work horses, one Studebaker wagon, single and double harness, wagon cover, whips, robes, etc. Also, one small house and its furniture.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN.

Brakeman Killed—Anti-Chinese Action—Geronimo Still Free —House Burned.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

CALIFORNIA.

The Anti-Chinese Movement.

SUSANVILLE, March 23d.—A large meeting of citizens here unanimously indorsed the action of the Sacramento Anti-Chinese Convention, and adjourned until next Saturday night, when an Anti-Chinese Club will be formed.

WHEATLAND, March 23d.—The Consolidated Anti-Chinese Association of Wheatland held their regular meeting last night, the hall being crowded and standing-room not to be had. The main feature of the meeting was the indorsement of the action of the Anti-Chinese Non-Partisan Convention held in Sacramento. Several good speeches were made. There are not over fifteen Chinamen employed in this vicinity, and they will be discharged as soon as suitable white help can be had to take their places. Peaceable and law-abiding means will prevail in every case.

FRESNO, March 23d.—The Anti-Chinese League last night passed resolutions boycotting Robert Barton, George H. Eggers, Joseph T. Goodman, W. Forsythe, F. L. Eisen, A. B. Butler, Mrs. Blatchley, nee Austin. They are all prominent vineyardists.

Sudden Death of a Yuba County Supervisor.

MARYSVILLE, March 23d.—James Lowrey, Supervisor of the First District of Yuba county, died at 3 P. M. to-day of uremia, aged 65 years. He was about the streets yesterday, and when he retired last night left orders to be called at 5 A. M. At that time he was found in a comatose condition, and remained so till his death. He came to the State in 1859, with Washington Montgomery, and was one of the last survivors in this neighborhood of the old California Stage Company. He has held many positions of trust, and was universally esteemed. He was in the livery business at the time of his death.

Brakeman Killed by an Engine.

DIXON, March 23d.—Frank E. Mercer, a brakeman on freight train No. 7, stumbled and fell in front of an engine in this town here this afternoon, and received injuries from which he died in half an hour. The deceased was a resident of Oakland, about 27 years of age, and unmarried.

Sudden Death of a Prospector—Chinaman Murdered.

NEVADA, March 23d.—A prospector named Harry Way died suddenly yesterday morning of heart disease, near here. Deceased was a brother of Samuel Way, a wealthy banker of Boston, who died some years ago. The former died almost a pauper.

A dead Chinaman was found on the road near North Bloomfield on the 15th of this month, with a bullet hole in his head. A clue to his murderer has been found. It is believed he was killed by his partner, and robbed of his share of gold dust taken from that mine. The suspected Celestial has been arrested.

Los Angeles Notes.

LOS ANGELES, March 23d.—Jesse Evans, arrested yesterday for rape, had an examination to-day, and was held to answer, with bail fixed at $1,500, in default of which he goes to jail.

Large orders have been sent from here to Kansas City for corn. It costs there 25 cents per bushel, freight 30 cents. The home product is held at $1.

The rates of passenger fare from this city to all points east of the Missouri river were advanced to-day $7 50. The cut rates, as before, to all points on the river are in force.

The reported strikes at Kansas City and on the railroads east of that point interfere with the shipping of oranges. Strikes are also rumored at Omaha with the same effect. There are probably 400 carloads still on the trees in southern California.

Eastern railroad men here think that Fair's purchase of the S. P. Railway is made in the interest of the D. and R. & G. The narrow gauge line will probably enter the State near as possible to Yosemite Pass, thence down the San Joaquin valley to San Francisco.

The news of the appointment of George Hearst as the successor of Senator Miller was received with great satisfaction in this city, while the people naturally preferred a southern California man. Knowing Democrats think Hearst's appointment has strengthened the party in the State immeasurably. It is pretty generally conceded here that by this appointment Stoneman has secured the support of the upper country for a renomination for Governor.

On the retirement from the Supreme Bench next October, Judge Ross forms a law partnership with the firm of Bicknell & White, of this city. The latter is the well-known Democrat, Stephen M. White.

Dwelling Burned.

CLOVERDALE, March 23d.—Joseph Eberhardt's dwelling, five miles south of town, was accidentally destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning. Antone Rhodman was badly burned.

ARIZONA.

Geronimo Still at Large.

TUCSON, March 23d.—In view of the numerous and conflicting reports regarding the surrender of the hostiles to Lieutenant Maus, the following telegram was sent to General Crook:

TUCSON (A. T.), March 22d.

To General George Crook, Bowie, A. T.: In reference to the contradiction of Geronimo's surrender, the San Francisco papers are desirous of obtaining a statement from yourself or Lieutenant Maus upon the subject.

To which the following reply was received:

FORT BOWIE, March 22d.

In reply to your telegram of this A. M., there is not a word of truth in the reports with reference to my having had an interview with the hostiles, or that Geronimo has surrendered, or that the hostiles were in Lieutenant Maus' camp when it was attacked by the Mexicans on the Hanos river, or in the many similar reports which have been so persistently circulated. Lieutenant Maus, with his battalion of scouts, is in camp south of the San Bernardino ranch, and is in communication with the hostiles, who are also in camp in his vicinity waiting for a conference with me. I leave Fort Bowie to-morrow morning for this purpose, and until I have a talk with the hostiles it is mere silliness to predict the result.

GEORGE CROOK, Brigadier-General.

Captain Crawford's Death—Supplemental Report by Lieutenant Maus.

TUCSON, March 23d.—Lieutenant Maus has made a supplemental report in reference to the murder of Captain Crawford by the Mexican troops. The report contains his statement, Lieutenant Shipps and Mr. Horn's, the hospital steward—all the white men present except Crawford. The attack occurred at daylight. Maus and Shipps had already arisen and were sitting by the fire. The first attack did not amount to much. The scouts ran out, some more in curiosity than anything else, without arms. Others ran out to a little hill near by, where they could see the Mexicans. Crawford wore his undress uniform and long beard. Maus wore a long blue United States overcoat. Horn, the hospital steward, was in a similar dress. Maus says he was within ten yards of the Mexicans when talking. Horn said that while the Mexicans were talking they were sending men around to occupy the hills where the scouts had already fortunately gathered. "This is my opinion," said Maus. While talking to Horn, one of the Mexicans suddenly raised his gun and shot him in the arm. The hospital steward says that while he had his back turned a Mexican fired two shots at him at close range. He was in the undress uniform of his grade. The Mexicans refused to answer any of their cries, until the scouts, jumping in in dead earnest, killed four Mexicans and ran the rest 1,500 yards before Maus could recall them. From the top of the hills the Mexicans condescended to respond to Horn, who went out alone to talk to them. One of the Mexicans said to him: "If you Americans haven't had enough, we will give you another fight." The story that the Mexicans had been following the track of the Chiricahuas is false. Their trail came in from the south, and the Mexican trail from the north, and Maus marched back over the Mexican trail, so that he can prove beyond contradiction that the Mexicans' story is false. Maus showed them a letter to Crawford, in Spanish, from the President of Sahuaripa, telling Crawford where Indian trails had last been seen, etc., and yet, after all that, they kept Maus and Conception prisoners in their camp until six Government mules had been paid as a ransom.

Chinese Wash-house Blown Up.

PORTLAND, March 23d.—At 8:10 this evening a loud explosion occurred at a Chinese wash-house, on the corner of Sixth and Madison streets, only two blocks from the Court-house, which startled the entire city. The front of the building, and the steps leading to it from the sidewalk, were pretty well demolished. Opinion differs as to whether the deed was done by whites or by Chinese, to get up sympathy for themselves.

SCROFULOUS

Sores and Glandular Swellings Cured by Cuticura.

EMMA BOYNTON, 857 Washington street, Boston, says: "I have been afflicted for one year and nine months with what the doctors called rupia. I was taken with dreadful pains in the head and body, my feet became so swollen that I was perfectly helpless, sores broke out on my body and face, my appetite left me, I could not sleep nights, I lost flesh, and soon became so wretched that I longed to die. Physicians failed to help me. My disease daily grew worse, my suffering became terrible. The eruption increased to great burrowing, foul-smelling sores, from which a reddish matter constantly poured, forming crusts of great thickness. Other sores appeared on various parts of my body, and I became have myself that I could not leave my bed. In this condition and by advice of a well-known physician I began to use the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in twelve weeks was perfectly cured."

SCROFULOUS ULCERS.

James E. Richardson, Custom House, New Orleans, on oath, says: "In 1870 Scrofulous Ulcers broke out on my body until I was a mass of corruption. Everything known to the medical faculty was tried in vain. I became a mere wreck. At times I could not lift my hands to my head; could not turn in bed; was in constant pain, and looked upon life as a curse. No relief or cure in ten years. In 1880 I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, used them and was perfectly cured."

SAN FRANCISCO MARKET.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23d.

FLOUR—The China steamer to sail to-morrow is expected to carry away at least 10,000 bbls. We quote: Best city extra, $4 25@4 75; medium, $3 50@4; shipping superfine, $2 75@3 75 ₱ bbl.

WHEAT—The situation does not appear promising. Matters abroad look as if values were likely to soften, and with such a prospect it is not to be expected that local prices would present indications of strength. There was some hope that Australia would turn up as a customer, in consequence of reported short crops in the Colonies, but so far no trade has developed in that direction. At the moment there is very little demand for export purposes. Shippers are in the market, to be sure, but they are somewhat indifferent about buying. Still moderate quantities of No. 1 shipping quality can be placed at $1 30 ₱ ctl, though the market is easy at this figure. Better grades will bring the usual proportionate advance.

Call Board sales at the morning session of the San Francisco Produce Exchange were as follows:

Buyer season—100 tons, $1 30½; 800, $1 30⅝. Buyer 1838—100 tons, $1 32; 300, $1 31⅞; 600, $1 31⅝; 200, $1 31⅝.

Seller 1886—1,700 tons, $1 20⅞; 1,600, $1 20¾ ₱ ctl.

Afternoon sales were:

Buyer season—500 tons, $1 30½; 100, $1 30¾.

Buyer 1886—1,100 tons, $1 31⅛.

Seller 1886—900 tons, $1 20⅝; 800, $1 20½; 100, $1 20⅝ ₱ ctl.

BARLEY—Trade is so slow that the market may be said to be almost lifeless. Yet there is good undertone to the values, owing to the fact that stocks are well concentrated and offerings are not being pressed. For desirable feed quality $1 25 ₱ ctl is the established selling price, with little chance of buying at a lower rate. Movement in Brewing descriptions continues moderate and steady, causing regularity in values. From $1 40 to $1 50 ₱ ctl is the range for Brewing trade, with an occasional transfer of something extra at a small advance.
